[BEGIN INTERVIEW]

Q: When did you think I can do this professionally?

[12:08:48]

JASON: Um, professionally? Maybe in middle school.

Q: Start again with when I was in middle school --.

[12:08:53]

JASON: When I was in middle school was when I first started to think that I could possibly have a professional career as a pop artist. And I would say my last years in high school, my sophomore year, is when I got serious. I would say that's when I really started to believe that.

Q: What do you think your strength is in this industry?

[12:09:20]

JASON: Um, my -- I think my strength as a pop artist is pretty much my intuition more than anything, um, just being able to know when to make moves and the right moves to make at the right time. It's a tough industry, and you have to keep your head in this game.

Q: What does it feel like to be considered one of the most prominent artists in the country right now?

[NON INTERVIEW]

[12:09:24]

JASON: Um, I think that's, that's a great experience for me. Me being one of the most prominent artists in this industry right now, especially in my genre, I think is a -- something great for me. It's a goal that I've been striving for ever since I started singing. [PLANE] So, for me being able to see my, um, achievements from the hard work that I've put out there, that's great. To be one of the best, it feels great because every night you go out, you know everybody's watching you.

Q: You did great.
